Acceptance of Bets in Shops

Bets are placed with Ladbrokes by writing instructions on a betting slip or completing a Quick slip. A Quick slip is like that used by the National Lottery/Lotto and requires you to indicate your stake, selections and bet type by marking a horizontal tick in the appropriate box. We reserve the right to refuse to accept the whole, or any part of any bet offered to us. A bet will be struck in our EPoS (Electronic Point of Sale) system and a contract will be established between us when your betting slip has been paid for and we have provided you with a valid betting receipt. Each valid betting receipt has a unique bet ID number printed on it, the date/time of acceptance, plus an image of your bet (or printed details of your bet in case of Quick slip). For your bet to be valid, the bet ID number and image or printed bet details must be registered on our EPoS system. No bet is valid until we have provided you with a receipt showing that the bet has been accepted by us. You acknowledge that by placing a bet you are not relying on any statement of any Ladbrokes employee regarding the subject matter of the bet. You acknowledge that there is a risk of losing money when gambling in our shops and by placing a bet, you accept full responsibility for any such loss. You should check your receipt to verify that your bet instructions and stake paid have been correctly recorded before leaving the shop. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that your receipt reflects the bet you intended to place as mistakes cannot be rectified after the event(s) have commenced. If the details on the original betting slip are incorrect or the image unclear, the bet will be made void and you will be asked to complete a new slip before the chosen event commences. Where you regularly place a particular type of bet, but inadvertently omit the instructions, we reserve the right to refer to your previous betting history in order to settle a bet where circumstances permit.

If the price has not been verified by a member of staff, the bet will stand if the price was correct at the time the bet was placed - if the price was incorrect, the bet will stand at the correct price at the time the bet was accepted. If a price is taken on a selection it will be applied to that selection every time it appears on the slip, unless the bet instructions on the slip, specifically state otherwise. Dead-Heat is a term that describes when two or more selections in an event tie. If a "dead-heat" between two selections is declared on any event, half the stake is applied to the selection at full odds and the other half is lost. If more than two "dead-heats" are declared, the stake is proportioned accordingly.

Multiplied odds do not normally apply for the same selection to win more than one event, or where the outcome of selection from different markets are related, the only bets available at the current odds are usually singles. A combined price may be available which will apply to selected doubles, trebles, accumulators and so on. For example: - Kameko to win 2000 Guineas and The Derby - Warwickshire to win all three English County Cricket competitions - Dustin Johnson to win all four Major golf titles. Please check for the combined prices available. If a combined price was taken for the same selection in two races/events and the selection does not take part in one of them, the bet will be settled as follows:

The bet will then settled based on the price and place terms available at the time the bet was placed (normal Ante Post rules apply) When prices on selections in different markets are advertised, these cannot be combined in accumulative bets where the outcome is related. The only exception to this is where special prices are made available, e.g. a Scorecast on a football match. In either of the above two scenarios, if a bet made up of doubles, trebles etc. is accepted in error at the individual event prices, the bet will be settled at the combined price available at the time the bet was placed. If a combined price was not available, we will create a price that reflects the scenario relevant to the time the bet was placed. If this is not possible, each part of the bet including a related contingency will be settled at the largest individual event price involved.

The bet will be void if there is material information missing from it, or if it contains mistakes which make it a) Multiple selections from different events: If the selections stated on the betting slip are from different events but no bet instructions are included, bets will be settled as follows: 2 selections - Double; 3 or more - Doubles, Trebles and upwards. Any excess stake will be returned as void. The only exception to this will be if the stake can only be applied to a specific multiple bet, g. if three selections are requested for a total stake of £7, the bet will be settled as a £1 win Patent. Where Match Bet is not stated, and no price or an incorrect price is taken, but "to beat" is written, it will be settled as a Straight Forecast. If there is a line drawn on the betting slip, this will be interpreted as the end of one bet and the beginning of another. In this

d) Unclear selection: official selection. If a name is stated on the betting slip, that name will stand as the selection even if it is incorrectly numbered or timed in any way. If a number is stated on the betting slip and it is unclear as to which selection it refers, the stakes shall be split proportionately over any reasonable interpretations of the selection. The following rules explain how bets will be settled if the selection named

i. Selection taking part in more than one race on the same day - If the selection is advertised to run in more than one race on the same day, the bet will be settled on the race (and meeting) taking place at the time stated in the bet instructions. If n time, or an incorrect time is stated, the bet will be settled on the first race the selection runs in. ii. Name stated incorrectly - If the name of the selection does not refer to a runner in the selected race, the bet will stand if it selections that could have been intended. iii. Selection repeated in multiple bets - If the same selection is included more than once in a multiple bet it will be treated as a non-runner where it appears for the second (and any further) time. iv. Horse/greyhound with the same name - If a selection is stated which could be applied to either a horse or greyhound running on the same day, the bet will be settled on the horse unless it is clear that a greyhound was intended, e.g. other greyhound bets were placed at the same time. If the selection is included in a horse multiple bet, the horse will count as the selection, and if it is included in a greyhound multiple bet, the greyhound will count as the selection. If it is included in a multiple bet which involves both horses and greyhounds, it will be settled on the horse. If one of the selections has already run, the bet will stand on the remaining selection(s).

v. If the only difference in two names is a suffix (included or omitted) - If the only possible difference in name is the country of origin as shown by a suffix (e.g. 'Fr' for 'France'), the bet will be settled on the selection with no suffix unless the suffix is detailed on the slip. If both names include a suffix but neither is taked, or in the rare instance of 2 selections running with the same name and no differentiating suffix, the bet will be settled on the first one to run, unless the time shown on the slip makes

 e) Error regarding the meeting or race time:
 If racecard numbers, trap numbers or terms such as 'Favourite' have been stated on the betting slip, but it is not clear which race is intended, the following rules will apply: i. Time of the selection stated but no meeting – All single and multiple bets will stand for the meeting which does have a race at the time stated. The stake will be divided equally if there is more than one meeting with a race at that time. ii. Time stated for a meeting that is not taking place – Bets will stand on the time stated. The stake will be divided equally if there is more than one meeting with a race at that time. If there is no race at that time, the bet will be void.

iii. No time/incorrect time and no meeting stated — If the bet is a single (including Forecasts, Tricasts etc.), it will stand for the next horse, greyhound or virtual race to go off (up to the official off time), which is covered by our Full Service, unless the word 'Trap' or 'T' indicates that a greyhound race was intended, or unless the selection makes it clear which race was intended. If there is more than one race taking place at the same time then the stake will be divided accordingly. In multiple bets the selection will be void. iv. No time/Incorrect time and the meeting named is not taking place – If the named horse or greyhound meeting is not taking place, the bet will be settled on the next race to run according to the type of meeting named. In multiple bets, the selection

v. No time stated but meeting named – If no time is stated but the meeting is named, all single bets will be settled on the next race to run at the meeting named. In multiple bets the selection will be void unless the sequence of selections detailed on the slip makes the intended time clear. vi. Incorrect time but meeting named - If the meeting named does not have a race at the time stated, all single bets (including vI. If there is no meeting with a race at the time stated, all single bets will be settled on the next race to run at the meeting named. viii. Price taken identifies the intended race - If a price on a numbered selection has been taken and the selection and race on which that price was available when the bet was placed can be identified, the bet will stand for that race. This applies irrespective of the race time detailed on the betting slip. In the case of single bets if there is more than one race for which the numbered selection and price can be identified, the stake will be divided accordingly. For multiple bets the selection will be vaid unless the sequence of selections makes it clear which race was intended. void unless the sequence of selections makes it clear which race was intended.

ix, 'Through-The-Card' (TTC) stated but no meeting named - If the numbered selections stated can be applied to greyhound racing, the bet will be settled on the next meeting due to take place on the full schedule after the bet was accepted. If no meetings are due to take place on the full schedule, or have already started, the bet will be void. R. Greyhound race instructions which can apply to different races – Where instructions such as 'Last Ten Races', 'First Four Races', or 'Through The Card' are detailed on the betting slip, bets will be settled as instructed, even if this involves races outside the full schedule. This applies unless the staking or time the bet was placed suggests that the bet was intended to only apply to races on the full schedule e.g. if a meeting on the full schedule consists of races and four further races, a Through The Card bet which is staked for 10 races will be settled on the full schedule races only.

If a slip has been overstaked, the total returns from the whole of the slip will relate to the amount actually paid and calculated accordingly, thereby increasing any return due (ie: the return will be multiplied by the amount paid and divided by the amount that should have been paid). No overstaking will be returned. If there is only one selection on the slip and the stake unit does not correspond to the total amount paid, the total amount paid will determine the stake (eg: a £5 win with a total stake of £10 will be amount staked will be divided equally amongst the columns. Equally Divided Each-Way bets are accepted if this is clearly stated on the betting slip. Instructions must be clear and should be verified by a member of staff at the time the bet is placed. If an ction is unclear or ambiguous, then the bet will be settled to the full stake, ignoring the ambiguous instruction. Tote returns it accepted in conditional bets. If accepted in error, the bet will be settled at the Starting Price.

Any to Come (ATC) & Single Stakes About (SSA/Up and Down) -In Any to Come bets it must be clearly stated from which selection(s) the conditional stake is to be taken and the specific amount to be re-invested. If a specific amount or 'All on' has not been stipulated, then the stake unit on the selection immediately preceding it will be taken as the amount to be re-invested. Should the preceding bet be a multiple one, then the maximum individual stake on that bet will determine the amount. Cash from one selection cannot go on to the same selection or event. In the event that Any to Come is accepted in error for the same selection or event, then the second selection will be treated as a non-runner. Bets will be processed in the order stipulated as far as funds will allow in accordance with the bet instructions. Should there be insufficient cash on hand to cover the whole bet, the Any to Come instruction will be followed as far as the cash will allow. Where there is insufficient cash to cover ATC bets involving Each-Way Singles, Doubles, Trebles etc, the bet will be settled in proportion to the amount available (i.e. the returns will be multiplied by the amount paid and divided by the amount which should have been paid.). Where there is insufficient cash in hand to cover reversed or combination forecasts in any one race, the stake will be equally divided and an Up and Down bet will be settled as singles. Up and Down bets are taken to equal stakes; any excess stake is treated as a single on that selection. In decliding which part of the bet the Any to Come is to be taken, or to which part the Any to Come is to be applied, adrawn line will be interpreted as indicating the end of one bet and the beginning of another. Where crosses are used to indicate a Stakes About bet, settlement will be made as Single Stakes About, irrespective of the number of crosses written - bets will only be settled as Double Stakes About if this instruction has been clearly stated. Any to Come (ATC) & Single Stakes About (SSA/Up and Down) -In Any to Come bets it must be clearly stated from which The 'If Lose' or 'SAW' condition will only be applied to selections in different races. If a SAW bet on selections in the same race is accepted in error, then the bet will be settled as single bets. SAW bets will continue until one of the selections has won; or, in the case of each-way bets, has a return. The bet will be settled strictly in the order requested, irrespective of race times. Where the instruction 'If Winner' or 'Stop at Winner' is given, a dead heat will qualify. Walkovers will be settled as void if they happen as part of a conditional bet.

Re-scheduled races - If a race is re-scheduled to be run later on the same day, bets will be settled as follows: · All single bets stand, unless a refund is requested prior to the off of the re-scheduled race

Any selections for a re-scheduled race in a multiple bet will stand for that race

If the race does not take place all bets will be void in which case all bets will stand.

• If a Board or Early price has been taken on a re-scheduled race, bets will revert to SP Ante Post - Standard Ante Post rules apply with the following addition: Where a reserve greyhound is introduced into a competition, all bets remain 'all in run or not'. If the re-introduced greyhound goes on to win or be placed in the race, all bets stand. If a reserve is introduced into an event and is not priced, then betting without the additional runner would apply for bets taken up to the addition of the new runner.

Trap Challenge - The Trap Challenge is not affected by reserves, vacant traps, void races, meetings which are abandoned after they have started, or races where a Starting Price is not returned. If a race finishes as a dead-heat between two greyhounds, each trap will receive a 'half win', if it is a three-way dead-heat, each trap will receive a 'one-third win' and so on. If a meeting does not start, all bets on an individual Trap Challenge will be void. If a meeting has started and a minimum of three races have resulted, the result of the Trap Challenge will stand. In the event of a meeting (s) being cancelled in a combined meeting trap challenge, bets will be settled on the other meetings providing more than one meeting remains in a combined trap challenge market, the bet will be voided. If two or more traps record the same number of wins, dead-heat rules apply. This bet is available win only. Multiple bets are accepted as long as the bet is not related. If a related bet is accepted in error, the bet will be voided. The Trap Challenge only applies on races at a meeting that features on the Live Schedule, or races between times specified. Aggregate Winning Distance - The Aggregate Winning Distance is not affected by reserves, vacant traps, void races, meetings which are abandoned after they have started, or races where a Starting Price is not returned. The bet is a prediction of the total winning margin (distance between first and second placed greyhounds) of each race at a particular meeting. This market will be displayed in three bands e.g. Crayford Aggregate Winning Distances - under 'x' lengths, between 'x and y' lengths, over 'y' lengths. For races won by less than a length, the following is awarded: Dead-Heat=0 lengths, Short head=0.1 lengths, ethed=0.2 lengths, Neck=0.3 lengths, 'k length=0.5 lengths, 'k length=0.75 lengths. The maximum winning distance for a race is 10 lengths. If a meeting has one or two walkovers, races abandoned or declared void, then bets will be settled with a default distance used for each walkover, abandoned or void race: 2 lengths. If a meeting has three or more walkovers, races abandoned or declared void, then all bets will be void unless the winning band for the market has already been established, in which case all bets will stand. Same rules apply as above for combined meetings (single meeting aggregate winning distance: 2 lengths for walkovers, races abandoned or declared void, then all bets will be void unless the winning band for the market has already been established, in which case all bets will stand. voided. Money Box - The Money Box is not affected by reserves, vacant traps, void races, meetings which are abandoned after they have started, or races where a Starting Price is not returned. The result of the Moneybox is determined by the trap number to have accumulated the most points during a meeting or combined meetings. The following points system, based on the official result, will apply regardless of the number of runners in each race; 3 for a win, 2 for a second and 1 for a third. If a race contains a deadheat, each trap will receive a "half win/place" (3 way dead-heat "one third win/place" etc) and the points will be divided equally between them. For example, two selections that dead-heat for first will be awarded 2.5 points each (points for first and second added and divided by two). Bets are unaffected by reserves, vacant traps, void races or meetings abandoned once they have started. Where no race(s) take place after a bet is struck the bet is void. In the event of a meeting and the meeting are void. If a meeting has started and a minimum of three races have completed, the result of the Money Box will stand. In the event of a meeting (s) being cancelled in a combined meeting Money Box, bets will be settled on the other meetings providing more than one meeting remains. In the event that only one meeting remains in a combined Money Box market, the bet will be voided. If two or more traps record the same number of points at the end of the meeting, dead-heat rules apply. This bet is available win only. Multiple bets are accepted as long as the bet is not related. If a related bet is accepted in error, the bet will be voided. The Money Box only applies on races at a meeting that features on the Live Schedule, or races between times specified.

Favourites Index - The 'Favourites index' market relates to the aggregate performance of favourites over the course of a race meeting. The scoring system is as follows: Win = 25 points, 2nd = 10 points, 3rd = 5 points. In the case of joint or co favourites, the favourite will be deemed to be the one with the lowest trap number. In the event of no Starting Price being returned, the favourite will be the runner with the lowest price as published in the Racing Post.If there is a dead heat for any placing, the points for these runners will be added together and divided equally between the number of positions. All bets will be settled on the official result. after the weighed-in signal. If the meeting has 3 or more races abandoned or declared void, then all bets will be void unless a winning market has already been established, in which case all bets stand. When only 1 or 2 races are abandoned or declared void, bets will be settled with a default figure of 10 points applied to each abandoned or void race. In the event of a walkover, bets will be settled with a default figure of 10 points applied to that race. If the favourite is withdrawn at the start of the race and no new market is formed, points will be awarded dependent on the price of the favourite at the time of withdrawal: Evens or less = 15 points, 11/10 to 9/2 = 10 points, 5/1 or bigger = 5 points. If the favourite starts but does not finish the course, no points are awarded.

Virtual Racing
Virtual Racing is a computer-generated presentation of a random number draw, in which each number is represented by a different participant (e.g. horse, greyhound, racing car etc.). Winners and placed selections are determined by a random number draw. Odds are set based on the number of times a participant is represented in the draw. The more times the participant is represented in the draw, the better the chances of being selected and therefore the shorter the price. Betting on Virtual Racing follows the same rules as for real sporting events. Selections taken from Virtual Racing may be combined with bets on other events (with the exception of other 'Numbers' events). Selections taken from different Virtual Races may be combined in Win and Each-Way multiple bets (e.g. Doubles, Trebles, Accumulators, etc.) Place only bets are not accepted. The place part of Each-Way bets will be settled using the usual place terms. For horseracing, a race is described as a handicap to signify the place terms on this race alone; it does not indicate an equal chance for every horse.

Acceptance of Bets - Acceptance of Bets - All football bets will be settled on 90 minutes play (also referred to as Full-time and normal time). This denotes the period of play which includes time added by the Referee for injuries and other stoppages. This does not include scheduled extra time, or penalty shootouts, if played. In matches where penalty shootouts or extra time are due to take place, all bets are settled on 90 minutes unless an Outright price is specifically requested and confirmed at the time the bet is placed. Matches played at neutral venues are marked as such on our coupons - the team listed on the left is still classed as the 'home' team for settlement purposes. A club team playing a European competition is classed as playing at home if the fixture is moved from the team's usual ground to another ground within their national boundaries. If a match is no longer played at the venue advertised, bets will stand as long as the venue remains in the same country and is not switched to the opponent's ground - should this occur, all bets will be void. Bets will be accepted up to the advertised kick-off time or where 'Betting in Play' on the selected market is available. Where it is not available, bets will be valid if they are placed within five minutes of kick-off, providing there has been no score in the match or no player has been sent off. If a player has been sent off or there has been a goal, or a penalty has been awarded but not yet taken, then the bet will be void and the stake returned. For bet in play matches, bets are usually accepted up to the 87th minute although market availability may change depending on the circumstances of the match. In addition, bets are also taken during extra-time and penalty shoot-outs where applicable. Where Ladbrokes has not quoted prices on a match, any single bet on that match will be void and treated as a non-runner in multiple bets. Football pools panel forecasts of match results and newspaper or pools plans are not accepted or acknowledged for bet settlement

Extra Time Betting - 'Extra Time' is defined as any scheduled period of play between the end of normal time (i.e. 90 minutes play plus any time added on at the end of 90 minutes) and the end of the game. 'Extra Time' does not include penalty shoot-outs. All Extra Time betting markets, such as Correct Score, or Time of First Goal, will start from the beginning of extra time and not include normal time. For example, if the game finishes 2-2 at the end of normal time, and if there are no goals scored in extra time, then the Extra Time Correct Score will be settled as '0-0'. Goalscorer Bets - All goalscorer bets are offered on selected major games as advertised. Bets are settled on the player to score

We will make every effort to quote prices for all probable players. However, prices for unquoted players will always be available on request and those players will count as winners in the event that they score. If the only goal scored within 90 minutes is an own goal, then 'no goalscorer' will be deemed to have been the outcome. If a match is abandoned before a goal is scored, all bets are void. This includes 'no goalscorer' bets as these are offered on the basis of 90 minutes being played in the game. If the match is abandoned after goals have been scored, all First Goalscorer bets will stand, any Player to Score at Anytime bets already determined will be paid as winners, but all other goalscorer bets will be void. Where there is a dispute concerning who scored the goals in a match, bets are settled on the first report by the official source/governing body or alternatively the official website of the relevant event, immediately after the match/event is finished - any subsequent corrections or amendments to this result will not apply for settlement purposes. If the result is not immediately available from the official source/governing body or official website of the relevant event, or there is significant evidence that the official source/governing body or official website is incorrect, we will use independent sources such as the Press Association to decide settlement. If no price is offered for "No Goalscorer" and no further goals are scored then all bets on the market will be void. Own goals do not count.
